Independent Financial Group Introduces Key Staff to Home Office

San Diego, CA – Independent Financial Group is proud to announce the addition of our Vice President of Advisory Services, Tony Orestano. Tony will be responsible for the strategy for growing the fee-based business of the broker-dealer. The independent broker-dealer now has 44 home office employees in its San Diego corporate office.

Managing Director and Founder, Scott Heising, says “Tony brings a wealth of knowledge to [Independent Financial Group].” He adds, “the relationships he is building with our reps will be invaluable to our future success and growth; and we are very happy to have him on board.”

About Tony Orestano

Prior to IFG, Tony spent the 14 years in various business development, sales, and marketing capacities for the financial services, institutional asset management and private equity sectors. Most recently, Tony led the build-out and execution of Genworth Financials’ Practice Management program. Additionally, he led Sales and Business Development activities for a nationally recognized Advisor business coaching program at a boutique consulting firm Genworth acquired in 2008.
