500 Registered Representatives on board with Independent Financial Group

San Diego, CA – Independent Financial Group, LLC (IFG) today announced that 500 financial advisors are now affiliated with their firm bringing their nationwide office totals to over 250 in 36 states, now including Hawaii and New York.

Independent Financial Group's registered representatives recently voted the independent broker-dealer firm a 9.4 out of 10 in overall satisfaction in a recent survey study by Registered Rep. Magazine. IFG attributes their continued growth to their brand and successful service model.

David Fischer, Managing Director and Chief Marketing Officer of the broker-dealer explains, "Our goal is to continue adding quality representatives without compromising the service levels we provide to them." Mr. Fischer continues, "We believe that bigger isn't always better and this mantra is the key to our growth. We treat each advisor on a very personal level enabling us to create stronger relationships with them and their families. At the end of the day, this is the characteristic that attracts advisors to us."
